

Laura Russo

Laura Russo was born in Italy and began dancing at a young age. At 16, she joined Kinesis Youth Dance Group, marking an important step in her artistic development.

She then became a member of Kinesis CDC 2 in Florence, a youth company directed by Angelo Egarese, where she spent two years. During this time, she participated in several company productions with Kinesis CDC.

Laura joined DART DSP for the 2025/26 season, working with choreographers such as Máté Mészáros and Iacopo L'Oliva. During the season, she was also selected to perform in new company productions by Kinga Varga and Laura Guy, as well as in restagings of works by Anton Lachky and Peter Chu.

Laura will continue as a company member for the 2026/27 season.
