

Charlotte Rose

Charlotte began her dance training at Dubai Dance Academy before moving to Paris, France at the age of 16 to study at L'Atelier d'Art Chorégraphique with Clairemarie Osta and Nicolas Le Riche at the Théâtre des Champs-Élysées. After two years, she relocated to Lausanne, Switzerland, where she graduated from Rudra Béjart.

Throughout her training, Charlotte participated in numerous competitions and summer intensives, including the Princess Grace Academy in Monaco, the Royal Ballet School, Palucca University of Dance, and Rambert.

Her repertoire includes works by Marco Goecke, Mauro de Candia, Simone Repele, Jean-Christophe Maillot, Laurent Drousie, Julian Nicosia, Guy Shomroni, Jirí Pokorný, Roy Assaf, William Forsythe, Thierry Malandin, and Maurice Béjart.

From 2021 to 2023, Charlotte performed with the neoclassical Europa Dance Company in Brussels, Belgium. In 2024, she danced in the DART DSP program.

Charlotte will continue as a DART company member for the 2025/26 season.
